

Keep Vaccine Between You & Disease

Vaccines aren't over because you're an adult. You need protection from diseases like pneumonia, tetanus, pertussis and the flu.

Complications from childhood disease can be more severe in adults so check with your health care provider and make sure you're up-to-date!

