

Keep Vaccine Between Your Child & Disease

Vaccines shield your child or teen from disease. Talk to your health care provider about protection from tetanus, diphtheria and pertussis (Tdap vaccine), the human papillomavirus (HPV vaccine), bacterial meningitis (MC4 vaccine), and the flu (yearly influenza vaccine). Age-appropriate vaccines are required for middle and high schools, and some colleges.

