Keep Kids Safe from Drowning

Drowning can happen when you least expect it.

Did you know: Most child drowning incidents occur in a pool, but 70% of those kids were not expected to be in the pool at that time.

Supervision is the most effective drowning prevention.

Water survival skills training and swim lessons can help reduce drowning risk for children.

Learn more at WaterSmartFL.com

FIGAL H